

ISP Cincinnati

The Ignatian Spirituality Project (ISP) invites people recovering from homelessness and addiction to encounter God's love, hope and healing through spiritual companionship that transforms lives. Our decades of experience align with what social science research continues to find: recovering a sense of self-worth, purpose, and belonging is an essential—and often overlooked—element of the journey of recovery. It's the foundation that helps other supports—like jobs and housing—last.

HISTORY

ISP Cincinnati began in 2000 as the first city to join Chicago in what has become a movement of hope spanning 22+ cities. Currently, ISP Cincinnati has active men's and women's teams and relationships with multiple social service agencies and retreat centers.

ABOUT US

ISP Cincinnati has a strong overnight retreat program with both the men's and women's team hosting six retreats per year. In addition, the women's team hosts an evening of reflection six times per year for women from several partner agencies at the Sisters of Charity Motherhouse. We are grateful for the support of many partners including Jesuit Parish Family, Jesuit Spirituality Center at Milford, Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati and Transfiguration Spirituality Center. Several team members have been recognized as ISP ambassadors and leaders on a national level.
