

ISP Cleveland

The Ignatian Spirituality Project (ISP) invites people recovering from homelessness and addiction to encounter God's love, hope and healing through spiritual companionship that transforms lives. Our decades of experience align with what social science research continues to find: recovering a sense of self-worth, purpose, and belonging is an essential—and often overlooked—element of the journey of recovery. It's the foundation that helps other supports—like jobs and housing—last.

ABOUT US

ISP Cleveland currently hosts four overnight retreats per year and twice-per-month spiritual reflections at multiple partner agencies. Additionally, several team members and alumni actively participate in ISP's national facilitator formation and the alumni leadership program.
