

ISP Dayton

The Ignatian Spirituality Project (ISP) invites people recovering from homelessness and addiction to encounter God's love, hope and healing through spiritual companionship that transforms lives. Our decades of experience align with what social science research continues to find: recovering a sense of self-worth, purpose, and belonging is an essential—and often overlooked—element of the journey of recovery. It's the foundation that helps other supports—like jobs and housing—last.

HISTORY

ISP Dayton began in 2010 thanks to a small group of passionate and enthusiastic volunteers and the support of the Sisters of Charity of Cincinnati. Today we have an active men's and women's program and strong relationships with multiple social service agencies in the Dayton area.

ABOUT US

ISP Dayton currently hosts four overnight retreats per year and regular spiritual reflections at several partner agencies including a weekly reflection at Saint Vincent DePaul. We have a strong alumni team and several Dayton team members have been recognized as ISP ambassadors and leaders on a national level.
