

ISP Detroit

The Ignatian Spirituality Project (ISP) invites people recovering from homelessness and addiction to encounter God's love, hope and healing through spiritual companionship that transforms lives. Our decades of experience align with what social science research continues to find: recovering a sense of self-worth, purpose, and belonging is an essential—and often overlooked—element of the journey of recovery. It's the foundation that helps other supports—like jobs and housing—last.

HISTORY

ISP Detroit began in 2014 thanks to a small group of passionate and enthusiastic volunteers. Today we have an active men's and women's teams, a growing advisory council, and a strong relationship with Manresa Jesuit Retreat House, which was instrumental in restarting the men's program in 2023.

ABOUT US

ISP Detroit currently hosts four overnight retreats per year and monthly spiritual reflections at several of our partner agencies. Several Detroit team members have been recognized as ISP ambassadors and leaders on a national level. The team meets regularly on Zoom and in person.
