

ISP Houston

The Ignatian Spirituality Project (ISP) invites people recovering from homelessness and addiction to encounter God's love, hope and healing through spiritual companionship that transforms lives. Our decades of experience align with what social science research continues to find: recovering a sense of self-worth, purpose, and belonging is an essential—and often overlooked—element of the journey of recovery. It's the foundation that helps other supports—like jobs and housing—last.

HISTORY

ISP Houston began in 2009 thanks to a small group of dedicated volunteers and supporters. Today we have active men's and women's teams and growing relationships with supporters and social service agencies in the Houston area.

ABOUT US

ISP Houston currently hosts six overnight and six follow-up retreats per year and weekly spiritual reflection circles at The Women's Home and other agencies. Additionally, several team members and alumni actively participate in ISP's national facilitator formation retreat and the alumni leadership program.
