

Ignatian Spirituality Project's Spirituality and Recovery Conference: Honoring the Sacred Journey

Sponsorship Opportunities

Conference Streams Live November 12-14, 2024

Purpose: The Ignatian Spirituality Project's Spirituality and Recovery Conference explores the relationship between spirituality and recovery through a 3-day speaker series. The presenters share their experience, strength, and hope with attendees to raise awareness, encourage people on their journey of recovery and healing, and inspire faith communities to create safe, welcoming environments for people in recovery.

Audience: Over 400 people registered in advance for 2023's inaugural conference and; over 250 attended live over the course of the event. In 2024, we anticipate 500 registrations and 300 live attendees over the course of the conference, including people affiliated with the following groups: 12-step recovery programs, social service agencies, spiritual directors, faith communities, ministry practitioners, and representatives from Jesuit retreat houses, high schools and universities.
