

IGNATIAN SPIRITUALITY PROJECT'S Magis Partners Program

The Ignatian Spirituality Project is a Jesuit ministry that invites people recovering from homelessness and addiction to encounter God's love, hope, and healing through spiritual companionship that transforms lives. In a world where so many struggle, ISP provides something rare: safe, loving communities where people in early recovery can connect, heal, and begin to rebuild their lives. This year, we'll offer programs to over 6,000 individuals.

Become a Magis Partner

In striving for the "magis" or more universal good, Magis Partners make a three-year pledge of $2,500 or more annually, joining a community that provides steady, reliable support for ISP's mission. This commitment helps ensure that thousands of people on the journey of recovery can encounter God's love, build trusting community, and take the next steps toward healing and hope.
